WOVEN CARPET

Wilton carpet Story

Wilton carpet is a type of woven carpet known for its durability and intricate designs. It's made using a weaving technique that creates a dense pile, resulting in a strong, long-lasting carpet. Wilton carpets often feature elaborate patterns and designs, making them popular for formal settings like grand homes, hotels, and historic buildings. They are typically made from wool or synthetic fibers and come in a range of colors and styles to suit various décor preferences. Overall, Wilton carpets are prized for their quality craftsmanship and timeless elegance.
